South Beloit, IL, October 27, 2008 – Libertarian U.S. Senate Candidate Larry Stafford has announced that he will be appearing at a meeting of the Metro East Libertarian Party on Saturday, November 1st.

The meeting, which is open to the public and to the media, will begin at noon and will be held at the Castletown Geoghegan Pub & Restaurant, 104 West Main St. in Belleville. Stafford is one of five candidates on the ballot for U.S. Senator in Illinois.

“I am excited about the opportunity of meeting voters in the southern part of the state,” said Stafford. “I plan to speak about the concept of a smaller, more efficient federal government and maximized personal freedom, and I look forward to answering questions on a whole range of issues,” he said.

Stafford has previously made personal appearances in Bloomington, Springfield, DuPage County, Chicago, Pecotonica, Northern Illinois University in DeKalb and the Illinois Renewable Energy Fair. He has also appeared on WLS-TV and WTTW-TV in Chicago (which will air on October 29th), the CBS affiliate in Rock Island, WMAY radio in Springfield, and was interviewed and participated in a debate on MillerPolitics.com.
